

Stephen J. Morton, Deputy Project Manager

Program Executive Office Intelligence, Electronic Warfare and Sensors
Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD USA 21005-1845

Mr. Stephen J. Morton is the acting Deputy Project Manager (DPM) for the Project Manager Intelligence Systems & Analytics (PM IS&A). He is responsible Acquisition Planning and Execution of the Army's next generation for Intelligence Processing, Exploitation and Dissemination capabilities. Mr. Morton joined PEO IEW&S over 20 years ago and has 40 years of experience supporting multiple Project Managers. Prior to his current assignment Mr. Morton was the Deputy Product Manager (DPdM) for Data & Analytics, DPdM for DCGS-A Increment 2, the Product Director for DCGS-A Software Development, and the DPdM for DCGS-A Intelligence Operations. In addition to his roles in PM IS&A and PM DCGS-A, Mr. Morton has been a Branch Chief for the Communications Electronics Command (CECOM) Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC), an Integrated Logistics Support Manager (ILSM) for several systems, a Systems Engineer, and Electronics Engineer on a variety of Intelligence and Communications programs. Mr. Morton has a BS in Industrial Engineering and is level III certified in Program Management and Systems Planning, Research, Development and Engineering.